

I am strongly opposed to allowing any media company owning more than the current level of ownership. Independent media is essential.